Midterm and Final Exams:

Both exams are closed book assessments.

Please review the "Course Exam Guide" found within D2L for instructions on how to proceed through the exam booking process. This course uses Respondus LockDown Browser and Respondus Monitor to invigilate the exams.

Any exam completed on or after May 1st, 2022, will be required to perform the Respondus “Environmental Check” during the start-up sequence before the assessment begins.

Environmental scans should provide clear video footage of the entire workspace in which you are taking your exam to ensure that the testing environment is secure.

You are encouraged to pause at critical points of scanning the environment to provide a 360-degree perspective of your workspace.

A thorough environmental scan is typically completed in 30-60 seconds.

Academic Integrity

The University of New Brunswick places a high value on academic integrity and has a policy on plagiarism, cheating and other academic offences.

Plagiarism includes:

1. quoting verbatim or almost verbatim from any source, including all electronic sources, without acknowledgement;
2. adopting someone else's line of thought, argument, arrangement, or supporting evidence without acknowledgement;
3. submitting someone else's work, in whatever form without acknowledgement;
4. knowingly representing as one's own work any idea of another.

Examples of other academic offences include: cheating on exams, tests, assignments or reports; impersonating somebody at a test or exam; obtaining an exam, test or other course materials through theft, collusion, purchase or other improper manner, submitting course work that is identical or substantially similar to work that has been submitted for another course; and more as set out in the academic regulations found in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Penalties for plagiarism and other academic offences range from a minimum of F (zero) in the assignment, exam or test to a maximum of suspension or expulsion from the University, plus a notation of the academic offence on the student's transcript.

For more information, please see the Undergraduate Calendar, Section B, Regulation VII.A, or visit <http://nocheating.unb.ca>. It is the student's responsibility to know the regulations.
